To the Honorable United States District Court Judge Laura Taylor Swain:

Segal Consulting (“Segal”), actuaries and consultants for The Official Committee of Retired Employees of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (the “Retiree Committee”) in the above-captioned Title III cases (“Title III Cases”), hereby submits this second application

(“Application”) for allowance of compensation for professional services rendered, and reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with such services, for the period from October 1, 2017 through January 31, 2018 (the “Interim Period”). Memorandum”).⁶ In support of the Application, Segal submits the Certification of Kim Nicholl (the “Nicholl Certification”), attached hereto as Exhibit A, and respectfully represents as follows:

Preliminary Statement

1. On August 10, 2017, Segal was retained to represent the Retiree Committee, effective June 27, 2017. A copy of Segal’s engagement letter is attached hereto as Exhibit B. The Retiree Committee represents approximately 167,000 retired employees of the Commonwealth and various governmental bodies and their surviving beneficiaries, including Puerto Rico’s retired teachers, police officers, firefighters, judges, municipal clerks, engineers, and other government workers of all categories (the “Retirees”). The Retirees’ pensions are underfunded by at least $49 billion. They are the largest group of creditors in these Title III Cases.

2. During the Interim Period, Segal performed a variety of actuarial and consulting services that were necessary and appropriate for the efficient and economical resolution of the Retiree Committee’s interests in the Title III Cases, including, among other things: creating a model to analyze the financial impact of benefit cuts on retirees; meeting and conferring with the Retiree Committee; advising the Retiree Committee regarding proposed modifications to Retirees’ pension, healthcare, and other accrued retirement benefits; and advising the Retiree Committee with respect to employee benefits related to the Retirees’ benefits.

3. Segal’s work during the Interim Period was necessary for, and beneficial to, the Retirees and served to ensure that the interests of the Retirees were properly represented and safeguarded in these Title III Cases. Segal is compensated on an hourly fee basis, plus reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred by Segal.

⁶ Pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order and Local Rule 2016-1, the Retiree Committee is required to comply with the UST Guidelines.

Jurisdiction

4. The United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico (the “Court”) has subject matter jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to PROMESA section 306(a).

5. Venue is proper pursuant to PROMESA section 307(a).

6. Segal makes this Application pursuant to PROMESA sections 316 and 317, Bankruptcy Code sections 105(a) and 503(b), Bankruptcy Rule 2016, Local Rule 2016-1, the Retention Order, the Interim Compensation Order, and the UST Guidelines.

Background

7. On May 3, 2017, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (the “Commonwealth”), by and through the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico (the “Oversight Board”), as the Commonwealth’s representative pursuant to section 315(b) of PROMESA, filed a petition with the Court under title III of PROMESA.

8. On May 5, 2017, the Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation (“COFINA”), by and through the Oversight Board, as COFINA’s representative pursuant to PROMESA section 315(b), filed a petition with the Court under title III of PROMESA.

9. On May 21, 2017, the Puerto Rico Highways and Transportation Authority (“HTA”), by and through the Oversight Board, as HTA’s representative pursuant to PROMESA section 315(b), filed a petition with the Court under title III of PROMESA.

10. On May 21, 2017, the Employees Retirement System for the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (“ERS”), by and through the Oversight Board, as ERS’s representative pursuant to PROMESA section 315(b), filed a petition with the Court under title III of PROMESA.

11. On July 3, 2017, the Puerto Rico Electric Power Authority (“PREPA”), by and through the Oversight Board, as PREPA’s representative pursuant to PROMESA section 315(b), filed a petition with the Court under title III of PROMESA.

12. Through Orders of this Court, the Commonwealth, COFINA, HTA, ERS, and PREPA Title III Cases are jointly administered for procedural purposes only, pursuant to PROMESA section 304(g) and Bankruptcy Rule 1015. [See Dkt. Nos. 242, 537, 1417.]

13. On June 15, 2017, U.S. Trustee, pursuant to section 1102(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, appointed the Retiree Committee, consisting of the following nine individuals: Blanca Paniagua, Carmen Nunez, José Marin, Juan Ortiz, Lydia Pellot, Marcos A. Lopez, Miguel Fabre, Milagros Acevedo, and Rosario Pacheco. [Dkt. No. 340.]

Segal’s Retention and Fee Request

14. On June 27, 2017, the Retiree Committee elected to employ Segal to advise the Retiree Committee. See Exhibit B.

15. On July 19, 2017, the Retiree Committee filed its Application for an Order Approving the Employment of Segal Consulting (the “Retention Application”) [Dkt. No. 671] pursuant to sections 105(a) and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code.⁷

16. On August 10, 2017, the Court entered an Order (the “Retention Order”) [Dkt. No. 1004] approving Segal’s retention as counsel to the Retiree Committee, effective June 27, 2017, on the terms and conditions identified in the Retention Application. See Exhibit C. Pursuant to the Retention Order, Segal is entitled to compensation for reasonable, actual, and necessary professional services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred in connection with the Title III Cases.

17. On October 6, 2017, the Court entered an Order appointing Brady Williamson as the fee examiner (the “Fee Examiner”) in these Title III Cases. [Dkt No. 1416.]

18. On December 15, 2017, Segal filed its First Interim Application for Allowance of Compensation for Services Rendered and Reimbursement of Expenses Incurred From June 16, 2017 Through September 30, 2017 (the “First Interim Application”) [Dkt. No. 2049], seeking $223,475.00 in compensation and $5,305.47 in expenses. On March 7, 2018, the Court entered an Order approving the First Interim Application (the “First Interim Order”) [Dkt No. 2685] in the amount of $223,475.00 in compensation and $5,305.47 in expenses. Segal has been paid $213,822.87 of fees and $5,305.47 of expenses approved in the First Interim Order.

19. In the First Interim Application, Segal inadvertently deducted non-working travel time twice. Segal’s compensation for the first interim period prior to 50% reduction for non-working travel time was $239,897.00. After deducting $8,211.00 for non-working travel, the requested compensation should have been $231,686.00. In the First Interim Application, however, Segal deducted $8,211.00 from $231,686.00 rather than $239,897.00. In addition to the fees and expenses requested for the Interim Period, Segal requests the $8,211.00 for compensation that it inadvertently omitted from the First Interim Application.

20. Segal’s fees are based upon hours charged, recorded in tenth of an hour increments, at Segal’s ordinary and customary hourly rates in effect as of January 1 of the calendar year in which the services are rendered, plus reimbursement of actual, necessary out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Segal on behalf of the Retiree Committee. Segal adjusts its rates annually at the start of each calendar year. The rates set forth herein are Segal’s 2017 rates (for October, November and December) and Segal's 2018 rates (for January), and are consistent with the rates charged to other clients, including outside of bankruptcy.

21. The cover sheet to this Application contains a schedule setting forth all Segal actuaries, consultants, and professionals who have performed services in the Title III Cases during the Interim Period, the capacity in which each individual is employed by Segal, the hourly billing rate charged for services performed by such individual, the aggregate number of hours expended in this case and fees billed therefore.

22. By this Application, Segal seeks allowance of compensation in the amount of $482,920.00 and reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $4,405.59. Segal has previously received $468,997.90 for services performed and $8,643.58 for reimbursement for expenses incurred through December 31, 2017.

23. This is Segal's second request for interim compensation in these Title III Cases. As set forth in the Nicholl Certification, all of the services for which interim compensation is sought herein were rendered for and on behalf of the Retiree Committee in connection with these Title III Cases. To the best of the Segal's knowledge and as disclosed in the Declaration Of Kim Nicholl In Support Of Application of the Official Committee of Retired Employees of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico for Order Approving the Employment and Retention of Segal Consulting [Dkt. No. 670-2] and First Supplemental Declaration of Kim Nicholl In Support Of Application For Order Approving The Employment Of Segal Consulting [Dkt. No. 1766] (together, the "Nicholl Declarations"), Segal is a "disinterested person" as defined in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code, and except as otherwise specified in the Nicholl Declarations, Segal's actuaries, consultants, and professionals do not hold or represent any interest adverse to the Retiree Committee.

24. Segal might have in the past provided actuarial and consulting services, might currently provide actuarial and consulting services, and likely in the future will provide actuarial and consulting services to parties in interest in this case in connection with matters unrelated to the Retiree Committee or the Title III Cases. In the Nicholl Declarations, Segal disclosed its connections to parties in interest in the Title III Cases that it has been able to ascertain using its reasonable efforts. Segal will update such disclosures, as appropriate, if Segal becomes aware of relevant and material new information.

25. Segal performed the services for which it is seeking compensation on behalf of the Retiree Committee and not on behalf of any other committee, creditor, or other entity.

26. Segal has not received payment or promise of payment from any source other than the Commonwealth for services provided or to be provided in any capacity whatsoever in connection with the Title III Cases.

I. Fees and Expenses Incurred During Interim Period

A. Customary Billing Disclosures

27. Segal's hourly rates are set at a level designed to compensate Segal fairly for the work of its actuaries, consultants, and professionals and to cover fixed and routine expenses. The hourly rates and corresponding rate structure utilized by Segal in the Title III Cases are equivalent to the hourly rates and corresponding rate structure used by Segal for similar complex actuarial consulting assignments, regardless of whether a fee application is required. The rates and rate structure reflect that such complex matters typically are national in scope and typically involve great complexity, high stakes, and intense time pressures.

28. Exhibit D to this Application is a summary of blended hourly rates for professionals for which Segal is seeking hourly compensation in this Application, as required by the UST Guidelines.

B. Fees Incurred During Interim Period

29. In the ordinary course of Segal's practice, Segal maintains records of the time spent on the professional services provided to the Retiree Committee. Exhibit E to this Application is a summary of fees incurred and hours worked during the Interim Period for which compensation is sought on an hourly basis in this Application, setting forth the following information:

- the name of each actuary, consultant, and professional for whose work compensation is sought;
- the aggregate time worked and fees billed by each actuary, consultant, and professional during the Interim Period;
- the hourly billing rate for each such actuary, consultant, and professional at Segal's current billing rates; and
- a calculation of total compensation requested using the rates disclosed in the Segal Application.

C. Expenses Incurred During Interim Period

30. In the ordinary course of Segal's practice, Segal maintains a record of expenses incurred in rendering professional services to the Retiree Committee and for which reimbursement is sought. Exhibit F to this Application is a summary for the Interim Period of the total amount of expenses for which Segal seeks reimbursement with respect to each category of expenses. The out-of-pocket disbursement sum is broken down into categories of charges.

II. Summary of Professional Services Provided During the Interim Period

31. During the Interim Period, Segal provided important professional and actuarial services to the Retiree Committee in connection with the Title III Cases. Detailed descriptions of the specific services provided and the time expended performing such services are attached as Exhibit H, and a summary of the services Segal provided to the Retiree Committee during the Interim Period is set forth in paragraphs 34 through 41 below.

32. Segal has established, in accordance with its internal billing procedures, subject matters categories (each, a “Matter Category”) for keeping time records of the work performed for the Retiree Committee. A schedule setting forth a description of each Matter Category utilized in this case, the number of hours worked by Segal actuaries, consultants, and professionals for each Matter Category, and the aggregate fees associated with each Matter Category is attached as Exhibit G. In addition, subject to redaction for work product and confidentiality where necessary to protect the Retiree Committee, Segal’s records of time worked providing professional services to the Retiree Committee are attached hereto as Exhibit H, and Segal’s records of expenses incurred during the Interim Period in the rendition of professional services to the Retiree Committee are attached as Exhibit I.

33. The following is a summary, by Matter Category, of the professional services provided by Segal during the Interim Period. This summary is organized in accordance with Segal’s internal system of matter numbers.

Actuarial Analysis

Fees: $275,724.00 Total Hours: 623.10

34. Segal’s recorded time entries in this category reflect the preparation of the most recent actuarial valuations for the ERS, TRS and JRS pension plans and modeling the effect of changes to benefits.

Fees: $25,340.00 Total Hours: 42.00

41. This time entry reflects non-productive travel time, including traveling for court appearances, committee meetings, and mediation sessions. Pursuant to Local Rule 2016-1(a), Segal is seeking compensation at one-half of its normal rate for time spent traveling in connection with its providing actuarial consulting services to the Retiree Committee.

III. Actual and Necessary Expenses Incurred by Segal during the Interim Period

42. As summarized in Exhibit F and as set forth in detail in Exhibit I, Segal has incurred a total of $4,405.59 in expenses on behalf of the Retiree Committee during the Interim Period. These charges are intended to reimburse Segal's direct costs that are not included in Segal's hourly billing rates. Only clients who actually use services of the types set forth in Exhibit F of this Fee Application are separately charged for such services.

IV. Segal's Requested Compensation and Reimbursement Should Be Allowed

43. The services for which Segal seeks compensation in this Application were, at the time provided, necessary for and beneficial to the Retiree Committee. Segal performed these services economically, effectively, and efficiently, and they benefited the Retiree Committee. Segal submits that the compensation requested is reasonable in light of the nature, extent, and value of such services to the Retiree Committee. Accordingly, Segal submits the compensation sought in this Application is warranted and should be approved.

A. Compensation under Sections 316 and 317 of PROMESA

44. Section 317 of PROMESA authorizes interim compensation of professionals and incorporates the substantive standards of section 316 of PROMESA to govern the Court's award of interim compensation. Section 316 of PROMESA provides that a court may award a professional employed under section 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered,” and “reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses.” 48

U.S.C. § 2176(a)(1), (2). Section 316(c) sets forth the criteria for such an award:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded to a professional person, the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including—

- (1) the time spent on such services;
- (2) the rates charged for such services;
- (3) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this chapter;
- (4) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
- (5) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the restructuring field; and
- (6) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this subchapter or Title 11.

48 U.S.C. § 2176(c).

45. As analyzed below, Segal submits the elements governing awards of compensation under PROMESA justify the allowance requested.

1. The Time and Labor Required

46. During the Interim Period, Segal’s actuaries, consultants, and professionals spent 1,050.40 hours providing professional services to the Retiree Committee for which Segal seeks compensation on an hourly basis. Segal required this amount of time to conduct its actuarial analyses arising from the Title III Cases and the other tasks described herein.

2. The Rates Charged for Such Services

47. During the Interim Period, Segal's hourly billing rates ranged from $590.00 to $890.00 per hour for Senior Vice President, from $400.00 to $560.00 for VP & Actuary, from $300.00 to $540.00 for Actuaries, from $280 to $540 for consultants, and from $225 to $340 for analysts. Based on the recorded hours expended by Segal's actuaries, consultants, and professionals, the average hourly billing rate for Segal's services was $463.99.

48. Segal's hourly rates are set at a level designed to compensate Segal fairly for the work of its actuaries, consultants, and professionals and to cover certain fixed and routine overhead expenses. Hourly rates vary with the experience and seniority of the individuals assigned. These hourly rates are subject to periodic adjustments to reflect economic and other conditions and are consistent with the rates charged elsewhere.

49. The hourly rates and corresponding rate structure that Segal charges in these cases are equivalent to or less than the hourly rates and corresponding rate structure that Segal charges for similar complex actuarial consulting assignments, regardless of whether a fee application is required.

3. The Necessity of the Services and the Benefit to the Estate

50. As described herein, the services rendered by Segal were necessary for the efficient and economical resolution of the Retiree Committee's interests in the Title III Cases. All of those services directly benefitted the Retiree Committee.

51. The Retiree Committee has reviewed the Application and has approved the compensation and reimbursement of expenses requested herein.

4. The Reasonableness of the Time Spent, Based on the Complexity, Importance, Nature of the Issues

52. Segal's work involved the representation of the Title III Cases' largest creditor constituency—Puerto Rico's approximately 167,000 retired teachers, police officers, firefighters, judges, municipal clerks, engineers, and other government workers of all categories—and Segal's professional services during the Interim Period were necessary to ensure that the interests of the Retirees were properly represented and safeguarded and that all matters relevant to the Retiree Committee were handled in an appropriate manner. The compensation requested is reasonable in light of those services.

5. The Experience, Reputation, and Ability of the Actuaries and Consultants Providing Services

53. Segal actuaries and consultants have achieved a high degree of expertise and positive reputations in their respective fields. Segal's Public Plan actuaries and consultants frequently receive recognition for their skill and achievements, and Segal is frequently cited as one of the leading actuarial consulting firms in this field.

6. Customary Compensation

54. The work for which Segal seeks compensation in this Application is of the type and nature for which Segal customarily would seek compensation at the rates identified in this Application. In addition, the compensation Segal seeks in this Application is comparable to the compensation it would have sought for comparable work outside of a Title III case.

55. Segal submits that the compensation requested is reasonable under all the factors considered under sections 316 and 317 of PROMESA and that the factors justify the allowance in full of Segal's compensation and reimbursement request.

56. In view of the foregoing, Segal respectfully requests that it be allowed interim compensation in the amount of $474,709.00 for services rendered during the Interim Period and $8,211.00 for services rendered but inadvertently excluded from the First Interim Application, for a total $482,920.00.

B. Reasonable and Necessary Expenses Incurred in Providing Services to the Retiree Committee.

57. For the Interim Period, Segal requests reimbursement of $4,405.59 for reasonable and necessary costs and expenses incurred on behalf of the Retiree Committee.

58. Segal's normal billing rates do not take these costs and expenses into consideration. Rather, Segal bills each cost and expense to the applicable client. Because of the disparity between the different clients' requirements for expenses such as travel, computer-assisted research, teleconference services, postage, courier and messenger services, and photocopying, it is difficult to charge costs and expenses fairly and equitably by including them in Segal's ordinary billing rates. Accordingly, Segal generally charges each client for such costs and expenses separately, in each case, at Segal's costs.

59. Segal does not include the amortization of the cost of any investment, equipment, or capital outlay in its charges for these services.

60. Pursuant to Local Rule 2016-1(b)(7), Segal seeks reimbursement for air travel limited to the amount spent on coach fare.

61. Segal has made reasonable efforts to minimize its costs and expenses in connection with its representation of the Retiree Committee. Each of the costs and expenses Segal has incurred in providing professional services to the Retiree Committee was necessary, reasonable, and justified under the circumstances to serve the needs of the Retiree Committee.

V. Statement by Segal Under ¶ C(5) of the UST Guidelines

62. None of the professionals included in this Application varied their hourly rate based on the geographic location of the Title III Cases.

63. The Application does not include time or fees related to reviewing or revising time records or preparing, reviewing, or revising invoices.

64. The Application does not include time or fees for reviewing time records to redact any privileged or other confidential information.

65. The hourly rates specified in the Retention Application were effective January 1, 2017, and have increased for certain professionals effective January 1, 2018. Segal's engagement letter with the Retiree Committee provides that Segal's scheduled hourly rates are periodically adjusted, generally at the beginning of a calendar year.

66. Consistent with the UST Guidelines and the Fee Examiner Memorandum Segal submits monthly budgets to the Fee Examiner beginning January 2018.

VI. Reservation of Rights and Notice

67. It is possible that some professional time expended or expenses incurred during the Interim Period are not reflected in the Application. Segal reserves the right to include such amounts in future fee applications.

68. Pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order, the Retiree Committee has provided notice of this Application to: (a) the U.S. Trustee; (b) counsel to the Oversight Board; (c) counsel to the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority; (d) counsel to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors; (e) the Fee Examiner; and (f) all parties that have filed a notice of appearance with the Clerk of this Court, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 and applicable provisions of the Local Rules, and requested such notice.

VII. No Prior Request

69. No prior application for the relief requested by this Application has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE, Segal respectfully requests that the Court enter an order: (a) awarding Segal compensation for actuarial, consulting, and professional services provided during the Interim Period in the amount of $482,920.00; (b) reimbursement of actual, reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in the Interim Period in the amount of $4,405.59; (c) granting such other relief as is appropriate under the circumstances.

WHEREFORE, Segal respectfully requests entry of an Order approving its Application and granting whatever other relief this Court deems appropriate and just.

Dated: March 19, 2018

Respectfully submitted,
